

MONEY MONEY MONEY MAD LIBS

.....

_____’s family is surprising him/her with a trip to _____ to celebrate his/her (Friend’s Name) (Fun vacation spot) birthday and they have invited you to join them, but you would have to pay for your _____.
(Something you will need on vacation)

This will cost you _____. You have _____ before the trip. You don’t have enough (Dollar amount) (Amount of time) money to cover the cost right now. You talk with your family to see if they have any suggestions on ways for you to earn money to cover the cost. They suggest that you _____. If you do this _____ (Chore) (Number)
times a week, your family will give you the money to cover the cost of the item that you need. To earn some extra spending money for your trip, your family suggests that you _____. Your family will (A chore you don’t like) pay you _____ for each time you do this. You choose to do this chore _____ (Dollar amount) (Number) times. How much have you earned? _____

It’s time for your trip. You are having so much fun with your friend and his/her family. You spend most of your time _____. You do this _____ times. Each (Something you might do on vacation) (Number) time you do this, it costs you _____.
(Dollar amount)

As a birthday present for your friend, you cover the cost of this activity for him/her too. Did you have enough money? _____

How much did you have left over? _____ How much debt do you have? _____

